An Applotment of the Tithes of Clondalkin Parish

in the Diocese of Dublin & Co. of Dublin

We have according to the directions of the Statute, caused a Survey to be made of all the Waste on each person's Holding, and deducted the same from his gross number of acres. We find that the whole of the Nett number of Acres, subject to tithe, and on which the Composition is to be raised is, $3424^{A.} : 3^{R.} : 33^{P.}$, and the sum to be applotted on the same, at 3/- per Acre, is £ 513 : 14 : 10¼, and that 11/12ths of said sum is payable to the Dean of Saint Patrick's, and the other 1/12th is payable to the Reverend John Read, the incumbent of Clondalkin, in lieu of his small Tithe. We have applotted the above sum on all the Lands, subject to tithe, equally in proportion to their value according to the best of our skill, and ability. We have divided the land into ten several and distinct classes in the manner following,

1st class	540 : 0 : 3.	at 3/11 per acre	6th class	141 : 2 : 16	at 2/6⅜ ℘
2nd Ditto	207 : 3 : 33.	3/8	7th Ditto	252 : 2 : 6	2/3
3rd Ditto	890 : 2 : 37.	3/4⅗	8th Ditto	364 : 3 : 9	1/11⅝
4th Ditto	336 : 1 : 17.	3/1⅛	9th Ditto	183 : 1 : 13	1/8¾
5th Ditto	481 : 3 : 0.	2/9¾	10th Ditto	17 : 3 : 19	1/1½
