

SKETCH OF A DISPUTED BOUNDARY Between the PARISHES of RYEMUNTERDONEY and CLONDAHORK
In the
COUNTY OF DONEGAL

The stream edged with yellow colour shows the boundary claimed by Alexander Stewart of Strath Duff and the purple line is that claimed by the tenant of the Church lands belonging to the See of Raphoe - the Content of Mountain is dispute exclusive of the steep Rocky Cliffs and Sand beds near the top of Mountain is 144.2.10 Irish measure as surveyed by Mr. John Montgomery of London in 1744 - the said hills are important considerations with the Claimants of the Parish of Clonahork - Donegal Sept. 7. 1824