

parish for ever in and by certain letters patent dated the fourth day of March in the thirty sixth year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the second and the remainder of said sum of four hundred and sixty two pounds is due and payable to His Majesty his heirs and Successors as a composition for the Tithes of the several other lands situate lying and being in said parish but We further Certify that the said Reverend Denis Browne during the period that he shall continue to be the incumbent of said parish is entitled to receive the entire of said sum of four hundred and sixty two pounds inasmuch as it appears to us that by a certain Lease bearing date the fourth day of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty one the Chief Commissioners of His Majesty's Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland demised the said last mentioned Tithes to the said Denis Browne during the time that he should continue Vicar or incumbent of said parish.

And we further Certify that the average price of Oats being the corn principally grown in such County for the period of seven years ending on the 1st Day of November 1821 is fifteen shillings per Barrel.

Given under our hands, this 31st day of August 1826.
