

Parish of Stannullin County of Meath

I Francis Robert Cotton commissioner duly appointed and sworn under and by virtue of an act made in the second and third year of his Majesty King William the fourth, entitled "an act to amend three acts passed respectively in the fourth, fifth, and in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of his late Majesty King George the fourth, providing for the establishing of compositions for Tithes in Ireland and to make such compositions permanent" to ascertain and fix a true and just composition for all Tithes arising, growing, yielded or payable within the parish of Stannullin aforesaid in the county of Meath

Do hereby certify that the true and just amount of composition for all Tithes whatever within the said parish is Four hundred and twenty five pounds sterling by the year, of which sum of four hundred and and twenty five pounds, --- Three hundred and fifty pounds sterling are due and payable to William Dutton Pollard Esquire and his Lessee George Pepper Esquire, as a composition claimable by them, as Tithe owners to be paid out of all that part of said parish where he [the said William Dutton Pollard Esquire, and his lessee] has heretofore received Tithes. And twenty five pounds sterling are due and payable to the Rev^d William Vandeleur Vicar of said parish as aforesaid, as a composition for the Tithes claimable by him, as Vicar of the said parish to be paid out of all that part of said parish where he as such Vicar has heretofore received Tithes. And I do further certify that the average price of wheat being the corn principally grown in said county for the period of seven years ending on the first day of November 1830 is one pound twelve shillings and one half penny per Barrel

Given under my hand this 25th day of September 1833

Francis Robert Cotton } Commissioner