

We Owen Daly, of Dublin, and Henry Branton Cade, of Athlone, County Westmeath, Commissioners duly appointed & sworn, under the virtue of an act made in the fourth year of the reign of King George the fourth, intituled an Act to provide for the establishing of compe-sations for Tithes in Ireland for a limited time, to as-ertain & fix a true & just composition for all tithes, arising, growing, yielded, or payable within the parish of St. Michael's in the County of Westmeath, do hereby certify, that the true & just amount of composition for all Tithes whatsover within the said parish or Rectory amounts by the year, due & payable to the Right Honorable Thomas Taylor, Earl of Rosine, Lay Impropriator of the Tithes of said parish.

And we do further certify, that the average price of Oats, being the corn principally grown in said County, for the period of seven years, ending on the first day of November 1821, is fifteen shillings & two pence for three per Barrel.
