Book Received this day from the Rev^d J. F. French, who informed me that in consequence of the numerous errors in the Original Appraisal Books in the lots, calculations and otherwise he was obliged to compile this book rectifying all apparent errors, & that this book in some cases told in his favour, as title owner, and sometimes against him. That he agreed with the land holders and adjusted their several liabilities according to this book and received the rent charge from them, so adjusted, up to 1 November 1870 when the Comm^{on} became entitled to receive —
