

looked on as ^{utterly} lost - There are yet other properties, with like ^{similar circumstances} exertions, may also be recovered; but I am ~~not~~ with the discouragement that I have met with ^{and the all return for all my labours} do not feel as I did at the commencement, I shall now shabby state the ^{benefit} value which any exertions have produced

Millican Act (allms)	600 -
Earl of Essex do	109 -
Income of payment out of do	500 -
¹²⁰ Value of £120 area @ 20%.	2400 -
Five for Minute Messrs	160 -
Value of £7 area @ 20% purchase	340 - do of 20 do	400 -
Value of property recovered	£ 4509 -
was considered lost -

Dear Sir

I enclose a copy of your note to Messrs Irvine and Reed respecting the ~~recovery~~ of the Property recovered of them, for the Vicar Choral.

As allusion has been made to me, in their communication to you, regarding this property, referred to.

They leave to inform you that my successful endeavours were not confined ^{alone} to the ~~recovery~~ ^{in question} of this property, ~~alone~~, but extended to others hereafter named -