

taken with Caution and Circumspection so as to limit the Cost within as narrow bounds as possible -

A successful proceeding against one tenant would probably decide the matter as to the others, at least make it a matter of comparative facility -

I have stated what occurs to myself. It is however for the Dean & Chapter themselves to determine on the course they think it right to adopt -

E. Hayes

Northey Square

27th December 1856