

Sir Thomas Lodge
5th August 1834,

Near a month since I wrote to you requesting you would have the kindness to send me by return of post a receipt for my having lodged with you my qualification and other oath as to the commissioner for the parish of Tullycorbit but not having had a reply obliges me again to trouble you should there be any charge I shall get my friend Mr. Sam Gray to pay
