

added to the Rental furnished by Mr Knose the names of the proprietors of the lands adjoining these Commons and the only means I had to ascertain the proportion of the rent-charge each Proprietor paid for the Commons was a Book given to me by a Mr Lyndon of Kenagh (who formerly received for Lord Ormonde) and which I sent to Mr Knose from the Country last September who has the same. The Rental furnished by Lyndon does not distinguish the proportion of rent-charge paid for the Commons, and I believe Lyndon effected an arrangement with the Proprietors to pay for the Commons what at the time of making the applotment were subdivided and not included therein -

John Hunt,

Application has been made to Mr Hickey the Registrar of the Diocese of Cashel who was agent to the late Archbishop of Cashel for information as to how the Tithes arising from these Commons were received during the Incumbency of the Archbishop and he states that he never could ascertain the parties liable -

The Commissioners have not been able to procure a copy of the Certificate of Composition. The Registrar of the Diocese states that there is not any such document in the Registry - An extract from the applotment Book is herewith sent from which it appears that the Composition for Tithes arising from these