

Received in the Registry of the Diocese of Ossory this 31st day
October 1833

I William Figgis Commissioner duly appointed and sworn under and by virtue of an Act made in the second and third years of the reign of King William the fourth entitled an Act to amend three Acts passed respectively in the Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth years of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Fourth providing for the establishing of Composition for Tithes in Ireland, and to make such compositions permanent and to ascertain and fix a true and just composition for all Tithes arising, growing, yielding, or payable within the Parish of Urlingford in the County of Kilkenny do hereby certify that the true and just amount of Composition for all Tithes whatever within the said Parish is one Hundred and Fifty Pounds Sterling by the year which sum of one Hundred & Fifty Pounds Sterling is due and payable to the Honorable & very Rev^d Joseph Bourke, Dean of Ossory, the Rector and Vicar of the said Parish as a Composition for the Tithes claimable by him as such Rector and Vicar, And I do further certify that the average price of Wheat, being the Corn principally grown in such County for the period of seven years, ending on the first day of November 1830, thirty, is one Pound, twelve shillings, per Bush,

William Figgis
