

I John the Son of Annumville, in the County of Dublin do swear that I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and ability, execute and perform, the powers and authorities vested and reposed in me, as a Commissioner in the present of His Majesty, Lord of the Manor of Chynell in the diocese and County of Dublin, by Virtue of an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty George the fourth, intituled an Act to provide for the better settlement of Compositions for tithes in Ireland for a limited time, and of an Act passed in the fifth year of his Majesty's said Majesty, intituled an Act to amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament for providing for the better settlement of Compositions of tithes in Ireland, and of an Act passed in the fourth and eighth years of his Majesty's said Majesty intituled an Act to amend the Acts for the establishment of Compositions for tithes in Ireland, according to the Direction of the said Acts, and according to Equity and good Conscience, and without favour or affection, prejudice or Malice to any person, or persons whatsoever.

John Annum

So help me God

Sworn before me this 9th October 1827
