

the said several portions are so arising and accruing and with respect to any lands in lease or otherwise and all and every other possessions and emoluments whatsoever now or heretofore belonging to said Deanery and not herein before disposed of or otherwise ^{transferred} we further order and direct that the same be and the same are hereby disappropriated, disunited and divested from and out of the said Deanery and transferred to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for Ireland and whereas the income of the Vicarage of Clonfert in the Diocese of Confort is equal in amount or nearly so, to the portion of the Rectorial Tithe by this order annexed to said Vicarage. We do hereby Order, Direct and Declare that the right of presentation to the said Vicarage or Parish of Clonfert so augmented as aforesaid shall belong to and be for ever exercised by the Queens Majesty Her Heirs and Successors, and by the said Bishop of Confort and his Successors in all future avoidance thereof, by alternate turns of presentation, and that the Queens Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors shall have and be entitled to and exercise the right of presenting thereto when it shall first become void and that the said Bishop of Confort and his Successors shall and may be entitled to and exercise ^{turn} the right to present thereto on and for the second ~~time~~ ^{time} and so on alternately in such and the same rotation for ever Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin this 12th day of February 1850

Maziero Brady. C. - Edward Meath - J. Perren

Richard W. Greene - Richard Moore.

A True copy - M. W. Savage

Compared with the document in His Majesty's & found correct - John F. I. Crompton Register 10 July 1862 - Augland