W^m Anthony Blackburn and Henry Sillery Esquires Commissioners duly appointed and sworn under and by virtue of an Act made in the fourth year of the reign of King George the fourth intituled, "Act to provide for the establishment of Compositions "for Tithes in Ireland for a limited time," to ascertain and fix a true and just composition for all Tithes arising, growing, yielded ~~and~~ payable within the said Parish of Rathkenny in the County of Meath, do hereby Certify that the true and just amount of Composition for all Tithes whatever within the said Parish is four hundred and seventeen pounds by the year, of which sum of four hundred and seventeen pounds, one hundred and three pounds, four shillings being the whole Vicarial Tithes of said Parish are due and payable to the Rev^d. Anthony Adams, and the sum of one hundred and four pounds twelve shillings being one third of the Rectorial Tithes of said Parish is also due and payable to the said Rev^d.
Anthony Adams making in the whole the sum of two hundred and seven pounds sixteen shillings as a composition for the Tithes claimable by him as Vicar of the said Parish, and that the sum of two hundred and nine pounds, four shillings being the remaining two thirds of the Rectorial Tithes of the said Parish are due and payable to John Morris Esquire as a composition for the Tithes claimable by him as Lessee of Andrew Caldwell Esquire Lay impropriator of the said Parish.

And we do further certify that the average price of Oats, being the corn principally grown in such County, for the period of seven years ending the first day of November 1820 is fifteen shillings and two pen-halfpenny per Barrel.
